Domingo de Pentecostés

En la fiesta de Pentecostés el pueblo de Israel celebraba la fiesta de la Semanas. En esta fiesta se daba gracias por la cosecha de los cereales después de siete semanas de la ofrenda de la primera gavilla. "Luego celebrarás la fiesta de la siega de las primicias de tu trabajo, de todo aquello que hayas sembrado en el campo" (Ex 23, 16). Hoy culmina la Pascua que hemos venido celebrando desde hace cincuenta días en los que celebramos la resurrección de Jesucristo. El Espíritu Santo --regalo del Resucitado a su Iglesia-- es el protagonista de este día. La liturgia nos ofrece en sus lecturas y plegarias elementos especiales donde destaca el Espíritu. Veamos algunos de ellos. Cambia la actitud de los apóstoles, quienes pasan del desconcierto y el miedo a la valentía y la predicación de la resurrección del Señor. ¿Cambia también mi actitud? Se nos dan diversos dones o carismas. ¿Cuáles pido yo? Jesús envía a sus discípulos tal y como él fue enviado por el Padre: a evangelizar. ¿Soy testigo fiel del Señor al proclamar su Palabra? Jesús resucitado sopla sobre sus discípulos dándoles su aliento que da vida. ¿Soy yo persona viva por el gozo del Evangelio? El Espíritu de Dios también está presente en los sacramentos. ¿Participo con frecuencia en el sacramento de la reconciliación y la Eucaristía? Podría seguir mencionando más puntos de la fiesta de Pentecostés, pero existe uno que todos admiramos: es el de la fidelidad. Jesús en esta fiesta nos da claro ejemplo de ella. "No los dejaré huérfanos, sino que volveré a ustedes... Aquel día comprenderán que yo estoy en mi Padre y ustedes están en mí y yo en ustedes" (Jn 14, 18-20).

For information regarding requirements, please check our job posting at <http://catholicdioceseofwichita.org>, Ministries & Offices, Human Resources.

Pentecost Sunday

"He breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'" What did the disciples think at this moment? They had witnessed a lot of astonishing things in their time with Christ: healing the sick, multiplying the loaves and fishes, turning water into wine, walking on water, and now the Lord's resurrection from the dead, among other things. But Jesus had never breathed on them before. And in this case, nothing dramatic seemed to take place. Perhaps the disciples wondered if anything had actually happened. Jesus spoke about the Holy Spirit, but other than the breeze from his breath, they didn't experience anything unusual.

Until Pentecost. Then, the wind changed. "Suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind," the first reading tells us. Now the drama unfolded as the Holy Spirit was revealed in "tongues as of fire," and the once fearful disciples began to proclaim the Gospel with courage and conviction. Clearly, something had happened when Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. But they didn't really put the gift to use until later, "When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled."

What gifts have we received that we haven't put to use? What graces lay dormant in our souls? At baptism, we receive the Holy Spirit and at confirmation, the gifts and fruits of the Spirit are given to us in their fullness. These sacraments are like receiving the breath of Christ. But have we experienced our own personal Pentecost? Have we allowed these supernatural gifts to rise to the surface of our lives? On this anniversary of the Holy Spirit's arrival, may we follow St. Paul's advice and "stir into flame the gift of God that you have" (2 Tm 1:6).

Pentecost

Acts 2:1-11 1 Cor 12: 3b-7, 12-13
John 20: 19-23

The Jewish feast of Pentecost is an ancient one that is associated with the harvesting of grains. It began at Passover and concluded seven weeks later, on Pentecost. On this day, the people would bring "the first fruits" of their labors as an offering in gratitude to God. In the Christian tradition, Pentecost marks the day Christians received a tremendous gift from God - the gift of the Holy Spirit. Today's readings remind us of what this gift means for us. In his letter to the Corinthians, Paul tells us, "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." In the Gospel of John, Jesus says, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." It is clear that we have been given much, and we are expected to return the first fruits of our labor to God. It is no coincidence that the Apostles received the gift of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. They were being sent forth, just as we are also being sent forth on a very special kind of harvest. The Spirit that gave the Apostles courage and wisdom for this task does the same for you and I as we go in peace, glorifying the Lord by our lives!
