15° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

"Dichosos, ustedes, porque sus ojos ven y sus oídos oyen". El Evangelio de hoy, además de sugerir ese gozo, nos ayuda a ver la realidad con esperanza. Nos invita a no tener la tendencia de encerrarnos en un mundo pequeño, el cual queremos controlar de acuerdo a nuestra forma de pensar. Hay que dar fruto y darlo en abundancia. Jesús nos hace notar que la esperanza debe ir más allá de nuestro límite. Nuestra ilusión debe ser basada en la Palabra del Señor Jesús, el verdadero y único sembrador. Sembrador que usa las parábolas como instrumento de diálogo y enseñanza para sus oyentes. Ésa es la forma como él propone el Reino de Dios, el cual se abre paso por medio de las personas de buen corazón. ¿Soy una de esas personas? ¿Cuánto y cómo me involucre en el Reino? La advertencia es que tengamos cuidado con los mensajes falsos que dicen ayudarnos a ver la vida mejor, pero que más bien nos alejan del Reino. ¿Sabemos cuáles son? Ahora es el tiempo de que examinemos nuestro interior y clarifiquemos nuestra agenda de poder, así como la influencia de las distracciones que nos rodean. Muchas veces estas distracciones se "comen" la semilla que nos da el Señor, dejándonos engañados, vacíos y sin lugar para la esperanza. Escuchar la Palabra exige fidelidad. Y vaya que ser fiel no es fácil. San Pablo nos advierte en la segunda lectura que el sufrimiento estará presente, pero que al aceptarlo y transformarlo se le da cabida a la gracia. Escuchemos, pues, atentamente la Palabra del Señor de este domingo. Ojalá que se quede para siempre en nuestro corazón.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Hear then the parable of the sower." With his analogy of the sower and the seed, Jesus gives us four images to help us gauge the depth of our spiritual maturity. What kind of "soil" does our faith exist in? Are we fruitful Christians? Does our seed yield as much as it could?

The first image is of the seed that fell on the path. This describes those who hear about Christianity "without understanding it." Nothing can grow, nothing can blossom at this level. We should ask ourselves if we have taken the time to be sure we understand the faith we practice. Are we stuck at a superficial level, allowing stereotypes, popular opinion, or media distortions to "steal away" the richness of the Catholic faith?

Perhaps we have been properly educated in the teachings of the faith, but our commitment has been fickle. Are we the seed on the rocky ground, that "has no root and lasts only for a time"? Have we experienced difficulties in the practice of our faith that have led us to become indifferent? Have we found it just too troublesome to bring our faith into our everyday lives?

Or have we heard the word, but allowed it to be choked by "worldly anxiety and the lure of riches"? Do we appreciate Christianity but fail to make the sacrifices that it requires? Are we more interested in a comfortable life than anything else?

Many of us have sampled these stages at different times. But ultimately, our goal as Christians is to be "the seed sown on rich soil." We are called to be open to hearing the word, to seek to understand it, and to allow it to take firm root in our hearts. When we do this, the seed of our own faith can produce a rich harvest for the world.

Stewarding Our Gifts: Go in Peace Glorifying the Lord By Your Life

Is 55: 10-11 / Rom 8: 18-23 / Mt 13: 1-23

"...my word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will,
achieving the end for which I sent it."

The prophet Isaiah compares the word of the Lord to the snow and rain that waters the earth and makes it fertile. It was sent for a purpose and it does not return to the Lord without fulfilling that purpose. Jesus shares the Parable of the Seeds, and proclaims a similar message. The seed was designed for growth and fruitfulness. Both of these readings speak to a life of stewardship -- a life in which a person recognizes that he or she was created for a purpose and spends his or her life fulfilling that purpose! Woe to those who "have eyes but do not see." While those people may recognize their purpose, they choose a different path, one filled with thorns or rocky soil. They do not bear fruit and are miserable for it. The good steward is fruitful; he seeks the will of God and achieves the end for which he was sent.

The July meeting of FAITH AND LIGHT will take place Sunday, July 30th in the Lower Level of Holy Cross Church from 5:00 to 7:00 pm. The theme will be "Christmas in July". Come with your intellectually disabled family member or friend and join in as we try to re-establish the Christmas Spirit in the midst of summer! A spiritual reflection, pot-luck meal and craft are the usual monthly celebrations of this tri-parish group. Call Pat at 620-665-7824 with questions.

St. Teresa Monday Mass Change

If you attend mass on Mondays at St. Teresa there will be a permanent change starting on Monday, July 17th. We are switching the church to Holy Cross Church permanently on Mondays at 7am.

Six Reasons From The Teachings Of The Church For Wanting To Spend One Hour With Jesus In The Blessed Sacrament

1. You are greatly needed!
"The Church and the world have a great need of eucharistic adoration." (Pope John Paul II, Dominicae Cenae)
2. This is a personal invitation to you from Jesus.
"Jesus waits for us in this sacrament of love." (Pope John Paul II, Dominicae Canae)
3. Jesus is counting on you because the Eucharist is the center of life.
"Every member of the Church must be vigilant in seeing that the sacrament of love shall be at the center of the life of the people of God so that through all the manifestations of worship due him shall be given back 'love for love' and truly become the life of our souls." (Pope John Paul II, Redeemer of Man)
4. Your hour with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament will repair for evils of the world and bring about peace on earth.
"Let us be generous with our time in going to meet Jesus and ready to make reparation for the great evils of the world. Let your adoration never cease." (Pope John Paul II, Dominicae Cenae)
5. Day and night Jesus dwells in the Blessed Sacrament because you are the most important person in the world to him!
"Christ is reserved in our churches as the spiritual center of the heart of the community, the universal Church and all humanity, since within the veil of the species, Christ is contained, the invisible heart of the Church, the Redeemer of the world, the center of all hearts, by him all things are and of whom we exist." (Pope Paul IV, Mysterium Fidei)
6. Jesus wants you to do more than to go to mass on Sunday.
"Our communal worship at mass must go together with our personal worship of Jesus in Eucharistic adoration in order that our love may be complete." (Pope John Paul II, Redeemer of Man)
