24° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Las lecturas de este domingo están centradas en la cuestión del perdón, no en la ley del talión: ojo por ojo y diente por diente. El rencor, la ira, la venganza son situaciones que no van con el Evangelio. Dar cabida a estos sentimientos en el corazón es privarse de la misericordia y del perdón que Dios concede al que se aventura por los caminos del perdón. Es importante detenerse a reflexionar en las palabras del Padrenuestro para darse cuenta de lo profundo de ellas. "Perdona nuestras ofensas como también nosotros perdonamos al que nos ofende". Perdonar no es fácil. Por eso debemos estar agradecidos con Pedro que se atreve a plantear a Jesús la situación del perdón y las ofensas desde un punto de vista de "¿Cuántas veces tengo que perdonarlo? ¿Hasta siete veces?"

Pero Jesús cambia la situación; el perdón que hemos recibido viene desde la cruz, es decir, sin límite y nos exige compromiso de perdonar las ofensas desde el corazón. Por eso la respuesta de Jesús: "No sólo hasta siete, sino hasta setenta veces siete" (Mt 18, 22). El amor y la fraternidad son la base para vivir como hermanos sin prejuicios de venganza y rechazo. ¿Cómo va su compasión en familia? ¿Cómo el perdonar las ofensas? Jesús sabe lo difícil que es perdonar y nos da un ejemplo concreto de perdón --el siervo que no perdonó a su compañero. El rey de la parábola representa a Dios y su inmensa misericordia. "El rey tuvo lástima de aquel servidor, lo soltó y hasta le perdonó la deuda" (Mt 18, 27). Si me ha perdonado, debo ser perdonador. ¡Que así sea!

Mark Your Calendar for the First Week of November for the Men's Christ Renews His Parish Retreat and the 3rd week in November for the Woman's Retreat.

Catechetical Sunday

The word "catechesis" means "to echo." Literally, we are to echo the good news of Jesus Christ to the world. This is not a suggestion; it is a command of our Lord. Some people are called and set apart in our communities as catechists, those formally trained and charged with passing on the Gospel to children and adults, inside and outside of our communities. On Catechetical Sunday, we acknowledge them and remind ourselves of the need for formation and growth in all of us. To be a catechist is a privileged calling, and today be sure to say "thank you" to one in your community.

However, it would be wrong on this day to only look to those bearing the NAME of catechist for an echoing of good news. ALL of us are called to echo and share the Gospel message. Parents are the first and primary catechists in a child's life. But we also are important catechists in the lives of our co-workers, our spouses, our relatives, and our friends. Some say catechesis begins in the home, and while that is true, it carries with it a parent/child connotation. But where does catechesis really begin? It begins in the HEART. This year on Catechetical Sunday, may your heart be moved to motivate you to share with others the good news of Jesus Christ.

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?" The parable Jesus tells today is the story of a king, but in truth it is about Jesus himself. He is the "king" who has forgiven our debts. We are the "servants" whose sins have earned us chastisement. But when we repent and ask for Christ's mercy, he grants it to us without hesitation.

The point of the parable, then, is that we too should extend this mercy to others. We should not be like that "wicked servant" who begged for mercy but would not show it to others. Elsewhere, Jesus teaches us to pray, "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors" (Mt. 6:12). We use different words, but a similar meaning when we pray the Our Father asking God to "forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." But are we sure that we mean what we say?

It's important to pause and evaluate how we are doing in this regard. Are we harboring any grudges? Are there people we refuse to forgive? Is there a situation where we are seeking revenge instead of extending mercy? Jesus asks us to do otherwise. He reminds us that we have already been forgiven. We are right now enjoying the benefits of his forgiveness. So we are called to bear in mind our own sins, failings, weaknesses, and "debts" when we deal with others instead of thinking that we are perfectly innocent and acting as if we've never been the beneficiary of mercy. So let us do our best to forgive as we have been forgiven. This doesn't mean approving of wrong behavior; God doesn't ask us to do that. But he does ask us to let go of bitterness and foster mercy instead.

"WHO ARE YOU FOLLOWING?"

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sir 27: 30 28: 7 Rom 14: 7-9 Mt 18: 21-35

The theme of today's readings comes through loud and clear: Give mercy in the same way you hope to receive mercy. In our sinfulness, we all hope to receive mercy, yet we are often reluctant to share it with those who have wronged us. In order to break this habit, we need only look to Jesus Christ, who tells us to forgive our sinful brother seventy-seven times (in other words, as many times as it takes)! The first reading tells us that "wrath and anger are hateful things," and indeed they are, yet "the sinner hugs them tight." As Christian stewards we must remember that mercy and compassion bring about joyful hearts, and that we should follow the example of Jesus in showing forgiveness to one another.

"What is the definition of a Prodigal Catholic?"

What do you call a loved one who never goes to Mass? Occasionally attends Mass, or goes to Mass only on Easter and Christmas, or professes they are no longer Catholic? Correct title would be "Prodigal". This situation is not hopeless and you are not helpless. Join us for an answer!

PSR Teachers and Volunteers Needed

As our PSR enrollment numbers continue to grow so does the need for volunteers to help. OLG is always looking for someone who can spare a couple hours out of their busy week to help our children. This can be as a teacher, an assistant, or just someone to help listen to prayers. There are 168 hours in a week, if you can just pencil a couple in for PSR it will help greatly. Being a PSR teacher or assistant is really just sharing your faith with the very kids that are the future of our parish. If we don't teach them who will? If you can block out a couple of hours from your busy week to share your faith please contact me at (620)708-1038 or jim.hoover@cox.net

Are you ready to be re-energized about your faith?

Plan to join us for an exciting event as Dynamic Catholic brings "Find Your Greatness" with Dominick Albano to Wichita, KS. The event is Sunday, November 12th from 2-6 pm at St Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, 645 N 119th St West, 67235. Discover the four habits that will radically transform your life! For more information and to purchase tickets visit DynamicCatholic.com.
