“A QUIEN ESTAS SIGUIENDO”

30er Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En el Evangelio de esta semana, Jesús es menos ambiguo en Su enseñanza. Cuando le preguntaron cuál era el mandamiento más importante-(otra pregunta capciosa de los Fariseos), Jesús no intenta escoger uno de los diez; de hecho, él les da dos mandamientos que ni siquiera han escuchado. Dos mandamientos que se suman a los otros perfectamente. El también se hace entender muy claro, a quien debemos seguir. Cuando nos pregunta, ¿a quién estas siguiendo? Obviamente sabemos que la respuesta correcta es, a Dios; pero, ¿acaso nuestra vida refleja esto? ¿Amamos con todo nuestro ser? ¿Tratamos a nuestro prójimo con el mismo amor que deseamos recibir? ¿O acaso, estamos más atados a este mundo y por eso seguimos algo que NO es de Dios? Y por último, ¿estamos juzgando y condenando a otros en nombre de la Cristiandad, en lugar de mostrarles el amor que se merecen? ¿Estamos ofreciendo servicio selectivo así como los Fariseos lo hicieron? ¿O acaso estamos viviendo como discípulos auténticos siempre esperando seguir a Dios constantemente?

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO - ALENTAR ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA (Gospel Meditation)

30° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El principal mandamiento es el tema más importante de la Liturgia de la Palabra de este domingo. La pregunta para poner a prueba a Jesús no se hace esperar por uno de los fariseos: "Maestro, ¿cuál es el mandamiento más grande de la ley?" Jesús le respondió: "Amarás al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con toda tu mente". Este es el más grande y el primero de los mandamientos. Y el segundo es semejante a éste: "Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo" (Mt 22, 37-39). Para dar respuesta, Jesús recurre al Deuteronomio 6, 5 y al Levítico 19, 18. Lo que el Maestro quería enseñar a los que lo cuestionaban era el cómo se llevan a cabo los nuevos preceptos de la ley. Es decir, dar un nuevo comienzo a las situaciones de ver y medir el amor a Dios y al prójimo. Es mentira, el que dice que ama a Dios y no a su prójimo. Por esta razón, Jesús añade que el segundo mandamiento es semejante al primero. El reto es practicar este amor de manera vertical y horizontal, de Dios hacia el prójimo y viceversa. "El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica" en su número 2083 dice que "Jesús resumió los deberes del hombre para con Dios en estas palabras: 'Amarás al Señor tu Dios con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con toda tu mente' (Mt 22, 37; cfr. Lc 10, 27: '...y con todas tus fuerzas'). Estas palabras siguen inmediatamente a la llamada solemne: 'Escucha, Israel: el Señor nuestro Dios es el único Señor' (Dt 6, 4)". ¿Cuáles medios buscamos para amar a Dios y al prójimo?

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." Jesus gives us a simple moral principle in today's Gospel. He speaks about two kinds of love: love of God and love of neighbor. He tells us that all the other laws and teachings of our faith fall under these two headings. So if we can master these, we will be in good spiritual shape!

First of all, regarding the love of God, Jesus tells us in essence that we must love God completely and entirely, with our whole being--heart, soul, and mind. If we are holding back from a full commitment to God, then we are falling short of this vision. So we would do well to examine ourselves and find those trouble spots where we are hesitant to give God everything. Is there a relationship we hold in our heart that is somehow separating us from God, either by negative association, lingering bitterness, or a kind of idol-worship of the relationship itself? What about our souls? Are we deeply attached to any pastimes, pleasures, or pursuits that cloud our soul from clearly welcoming the presence of God? An examination of our minds is in order as well. How do we direct our thoughts? Do we strive to form our conscience and understanding in the truth, or do we passively allow public opinion or popular consensus to direct our conclusions about the Church, the world, and our own identity?

It follows that the closer we come to loving God with our whole being, the better we will be at loving our neighbors. The more we are filled with God's love, the more that love radiates out to those around us, and the less we concern ourselves about what we can get out of the deal. So let us truly love God, and all the rest will follow.

PARISH NEWS / NOTICIAS DE LA PARROQUIA

"WHO ARE YOU FOLLOWING?"

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ex 22:20-26, 1 Thes 1:5c-10, Mt 22:34-40

In this week's Gospel, Jesus is less ambiguous in His teaching. When asked which is the greatest commandment (another trick by the Pharisees), Jesus doesn't attempt to pick one of the ten. Instead, he gives them two commandments they've never even heard; two commandments that sum up the others perfectly. He also manages to make it VERY clear just who we should be following. When asked "Who are you following," we obviously know that the right answer is God. But does our life indicate that? Do we love with our entire being? Do we treat our neighbors with the same love we hope to receive? Or, are we more tied to this world, and therefore following something NOT of God? And are we judging and condemning others in the name of Christianity, rather than showing them the love they deserve? Are we offering lip service, as the Pharisees did? Or are we living as authentic disciples, striving to follow God constantly?
