"¿A quién estás siguiendo? " Segundo Domingo de Pascua/Domingo de la divina misericordia

Hechos 4:32-35/1 Jn 5:1-6/Jn 20:19-31

"no había ninguna persona necesitada entre ellos..." la lectura de los hechos de hoy habla de los primeros discípulos mientras ellos vivían su mayordomía, compartiendo unos con otros y satisfaciendo las necesidades de cada uno en términos de propiedad, pero estaban satisfaciendo las necesidades espirituales de los otros, demasiado. En este domingo de la divina misericordia, se nos alienta a considerar a la gente que nos rodea--en casa, en el trabajo, en la iglesia. Estamos verdaderamente rodeados de gente necesitada; necesitan amor, perdón, y compasión... necesitan misericordia, y ¿quién mejor para satisfacer esa necesidad que nosotros? ¡ hoy es un día perfecto para cooperar con el plan de Dios para entregar misericordia a todas las personas!

2º Domingo de Pascua, Divina Misericordia

Estamos viviendo el Misterio Pascual en plenitud. Hoy celebramos el Domingo de la Misericordia instituido por San Juan Pablo II. En el año 2000 el Papa San Juan Pablo II canonizó a Santa Faustina y durante la ceremonia declaró que cada segundo domingo de Pascua se celebraría en toda la Iglesia el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. El dijo lo siguiente en su homilía. "Y tú, Faustina, don de Dios a nuestro tiempo, don de la tierra de Polonia a toda la Iglesia, concédenos percibir la profundidad de la misericordia divina, ayúdanos a experimentarla en nuestra vida y a testimoniarla a nuestros hermanos".
Santa Faustina, en nuestro tiempo con su ejemplo nos muestra la gran misericordia de Dios por medio de su Hijo Jesús. Santo Tomás de personalidad obstinada e incrédula se encuentra con la Divina Misericordia al ver a Jesús Resucitado sereno y entendiendo su incredulidad le dice. "Pon aquí tu dedo y mira mis manos; extiende tu mano y métela en mi costado. Deja de negar y cree". (Juan 20:27). Todos tenemos algo de Santo Tomás. Algunas veces nuestra incredulidad es razonable y prudente. Otras veces es sin sentido y nos pierde de oportunidades de cambio de vida. Lo importante es saber que cuando estamos en circunstancias parecidas a Santo Tomás, y dejándose guiar el Señor Jesús toma la iniciativa y suavemente nos mueve a continuar. Es sólo estando con el Señor que seremos portadores de la paz en nuestros corazones. Pidamos esta semana por la paz en las familias, comunidad y en el mundo. Sabiendo, que la Divina Misericordia nunca nos abandona.

PRAYING THE DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET

Begin with the Our Father, Hail Mary, and the Apostles Creed. Using regular rosary beads, work your way around the five decades with the prayers below.

On the standalone beads, pray: "Eternal Father, I offer you the body, blood, soul, and divinity of your dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world."

On the decade beads, pray: "For the sake of his sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world."

At the end, pray the following three times: "Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world."

It is typical to conclude the Divine Mercy Chaplet with the words: "Jesus, I trust in you."

THANK YOU

2nd Sunday of Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday

Should we be a little easier on Thomas? The last few days have been a whirlwind. On Thursday, a Passover celebration went horribly awry as Jesus was betrayed and taken into custody for unstated crimes. Less than 24 hours later, the simple arrest has turned into a death sentence to be carried out that very afternoon. Most of the disciples fled, including Thomas. He would have heard of the events of Good Friday secondhand, in shock over the death of his Lord and Master. Then Sunday morning arrives with joy from a few disciples--Jesus is risen! But there is no persistent sight of him, only Mary Magdalene's quick moment in the garden and an empty tomb. Another day passes. The Apostles are gathered that Monday night, but Thomas is absent. He returns to a jubilant report of the risen Lord. Again, Thomas has seen nothing. The experience must have been surreal. Did Jesus really appear raised from the dead? Did he really suffer and die? Has all of this been some strange hoax? Desperate for an answer, Thomas insists, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." After his resurrection, Jesus' body--mangled and bloody from the crucifixion--is restored. Did it need the scars? A perfected body would have taught us one lesson: everything is renewed as it once was, the past erased. Jesus chooses another lesson, however. He retains his scars that we might know him. In the whirlwind of our lives, we make our own mistakes, our own betrayals and compromises. In the resurrected Jesus, we see a God who does not forget his own sorrow. We are invited to meet him--wound for wound--and place our hand on his own nail-scarred palm, the eternal sign of his everlasting mercy.

"Who are You Following?"

Second Sunday of Easter/Divine Mercy Sunday Acts 4:32-35 / 1 Jn 5:1-6 / Jn 20:19-31

"There was no needy person among them..." Today's reading from Acts speaks of the first disciples as they lived out their stewardship, sharing with one another and meeting each other's needs in terms of property, but they were meeting one another's spiritual needs, too. On this Divine Mercy Sunday, we are encouraged to consider the people around us -- at home, at work, at church. We are truly surrounded by needy people; they need love, forgiveness, and compassion...they need mercy, and who better to meet that need than us? Today is a perfect day to cooperate with God's plan to deliver mercy to all people!

Holy Cross Ministry of Consolation monthly pot luck and sharing will be held on April 8, 2018. We will meet in the lower level of Holy Cross Catholic Church after 11:00 Mass. Following the death of a loved one, we can feel all kinds of emotions and sadness. Our ministry is here to help with support, encouragement, tears and laughter-sharing with others. Please join us if you are dealing with grief issues. "Blessed are those who mourn for they shall be comforted". Contact-Diane McCarville 620-662-3757
