Nativity of
SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

When the time arrived for Elizabeth to have her child she gave birth to a son. When they came on the eighth day to circumcise the child, they were going to call him Zechariah after his father, but his mother said in reply, "No. He will be called John."
- Lk 1:57, 59-60

“A Quien estas Siguiendo” Solemnidad de la Natividad de San Juan Bautista

De seguro alguna vez has escuchado que ser un practicante del Stewardship es una forma de vida. En otras palabras, no es lo que hacemos, sino quienes somos. La palabra Stewardship implica un gran nivel de servicio; hay una disposición de servir a Dios y a los demás. Las lecturas de hoy, mencionan algunos personajes Bíblicos quienes fueron servidores inusuales y que crecieron por medio de Dios: Israel (Jacob), David y Juan el Bautista. Cada uno de ellos fue llamado al servicio desde que estaban en el vientre materno y cada uno dejó que Dios lo utilizara para el cumplimiento de Sus planes. Tu y yo no somos diferentes a estos grandes hombres; nosotros también estamos llamados al servicio desde que estamos en el vientre. Nosotros fuimos creados para ser buenos practicantes del Stewardship en nuestras vidas y debemos de estar siempre gozosos por esto. Así como Juan el Bautista, nosotros vivimos como servidores de Dios, dejando que nuestra propia existencia proclame que Jesucristo es Señor de nuestras vidas.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO - ALENTAR ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA (Gospel Meditation)

La Natividad de San Juan Bautista

Pero el ángel le dijo: "No temas, Zacarías". (Lc. 1:13). Por aquello del miedo de encontrar a Dios en la vida y que revele cosas que no se comprenden de inmediato. El Evangelio nos dice que Zacarías se turbó al verlo, y el temor se apoderó de él. ¿Qué hubiera hecho tú en lugar de Zacarías? ¿Cuál hubiera sido tu respuesta? Para iluminar la respuesta, tenemos la luz de las palabras del Papa Francisco, que nos dan pequeñas pautas a seguir en la Solemnidad de hoy. Dijo él: "Los días más largos del año; los días que tienen más luz, porque en las tinieblas de aquel tiempo Juan era el hombre de la luz: no de una luz propia, sino de una luz reflejada. Como una luna. Y cuando Jesús comenzó a predicar, la luz de Juan empezó a disiparse, a disminuir, a desvanecerse. El mismo lo dice con claridad al hablar de su propia misión. Es necesario que Él crezca y yo mengüe" (Lunes 24 de junio de 2013).

Juan Bautista fue el gran profeta y el heraldo de Jesús el Mesías. Preparó el camino del Señor revelando a Jesús a otros como el Mesías y como el Cordero de Dios. San Juan ejemplifica la vida del cristiano que proclama el mensaje de salvación y arrepentimiento. Se enfoca en la dirección correcta, vuela la mirada hacia el Cordero de Dios y se une sin reservas a él. El destino de San Juan estaba escrito, y lo llevó a cabo con dignidad desde el comienzo hasta el final. Ahora es el turno de los seguidores de Jesús de anunciarlo al mundo que sufre y que busca la justicia. ¡San Juan Bautista ruega por nosotros! Para que seamos fieles anunciadores del Reino de Dios. ¿Lo haremos?

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

The Nativity of Saint John the Baptist

Tiny fingers and toes. A little yawn. A loud cry. An infant wrapped in swaddling clothes. "What will this child be?" It is a question every parent asks time and time again. As first steps are taken, as personalities emerge, as a child shows interest in reading or drawing or climbing, the question is on our lips. "What will this child be?" This question is asked as John the Baptist is born. Will he be a priest like his father? Does his strange, unexpected name signal a departure from that inheritance? Could Elizabeth and Zechariah ever have predicted what would be?

Under the tutelage of his priestly father, John "became strong in spirit." As an adult, John would retreat into the desert to preach repentance. He would attract a large following and eventually attract the attention of the rulers of the day. He would point out the adulterous ways of King Herod and would find himself in prison. Eventually, he would be beheaded. But today, he is a child, an infant newly born.

On this special feast, we're reminded of the great humility required of parents. The character formation, the discipline and encouragement, the violin lessons and soccer practices? every parental effort is subjected to the decisions of the child themselves. Even children on a sure track by high school graduation transform under life's circumstances. Entrusting our children to God can be incredibly intimidating. "What will this child be," especially when that transformation lies outside of my control? John the Baptist's story might not have ended as his parents imagined. But he is celebrated as the greatest of the prophets, as the one who prepared the way for the Messiah. Here is the hope of all Christian parents -- that our children would be raised in such a way that when people meet them, they meet Jesus Christ.

"Who are you Following?"

The Solemnity of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist

Is 49: 1-6 / Acts 13: 22-26 / Lk 1: 57-66, 80

You have heard that being a steward is a way of life. In other words, it is not what we do -- it is who we are. In the word stewardship is implied a level of servant hood; there is a willingness to serve God and others. Today's readings mention a few of the Biblical figures who were unlikely servants, raised up by God: Israel (Jacob), David, and John the Baptist. Each one was called into servant hood while in the womb and each allowed God to use him in the fulfillment of His plans. You and are I no different from these great holy men. We, too, were called into servant hood while in the womb. We were created to be good stewards of our lives and we should rejoice in it! Like John the Baptist, we live as servants of God, allowing our very existence to proclaim that Jesus Christ is Lord of our lives.

July 5th, 2018 Harvest House will be having our summer indoor picnic at Holy Cross in the lower level at noon. Hamburgers and Hot dogs will be provided. Please bring a side dish you would take to a family picnic. Hope to see you there. Please call and leave a message if you are planning on attending so we have plenty of food. Thank You Janet Holland 620-259-7305
