“¿A Quien Estas Siguiendo?”

El Evangelio de hoy, habla de una gran necesidad de una fe fuerte. No es extraño para alguien crecer complaciendo su fe, pero esta complacencia de hecho puede disminuir su fe. Imaginate que eres parte de la multitud de la que se habla en el Evangelio; ¿Cuántas docenas de personas pudieron haber sido tocadas, o pudieron haberse encontrado con Jesús mientras caminaba entre ellas? Muchas de esas personas no reconocían que habían encontrado al miso Jesucristo y siguieron con sus vidas ordinarias. Pero, la mujer que sufría de una hemorragia, sabía quién era El y acrecentó su fe; ella sabía que simplemente con tocar Sus vestimentas salvaría su vida. A muchos nos gusta creer que vivimos una vida de fe como la de ella; pero, ¿cuántas veces nos hemos encontrado con Jesús... por ejemplo en Misa, en la calle cuando nos encontramos con nuestro prójimo, o tal ve, en nuestras apuradas oraciones? Todas estas oportunidades de encuentro se pierden tan solo con permanecer igual porque no tenemos fe. Nuestro bautismo nos llama a una relación más profunda con Jesús y esta relación requiere de una gran fe. En nuestra práctica del Stewardship, no dejemos que “accidentalmente” encontremos a Jesús; pero, que vivamos de una manera en la cual deliberadamente nos lo encontremos.

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO - ALENTAR ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA (Gospel Meditation)

13° Domingo del tiempo ordinario

El Evangelio de hoy nos muestra un momento cumbre con un doble episodio en la vida pública de Jesús. Sana a una mujer de edad avanzada y resucita a una adolescente de doce años. ¡Hermosa, admirable providencia de Dios! Doble acto de fe, doble milagro y doble esperanza para el que cree. Una, temerosa por haber tocado a Jesús, recibe palabras alentadoras: "Hija, tu fe te ha salvado; vete en paz y queda sana de tu enfermedad" (Mc. 5:34). A la segunda joven, Jesús toma de la mano y le dice las siguientes palabras: "'Talitá kumi', que quiere decir: 'Niña, te lo digo, ¡levántate!'" (Mc. 5:42-43). Y agrega: "denle de comer". Sanar a las personas de sus enfermedades era un aspecto importante del ministerio de Jesús. Pero observemos que la tarea de sanar requería fe, una fe grande de parte de aquel que necesitaba sanidad. La fe es un regalo de Dios, que se experimenta por la cercanía, la relación y la unidad con Jesús. No basta solo con decir que se tiene fe, hay que dialogar con el Maestro para obtener beneficios. Entonces, ¿por qué cuando pedimos a Dios que sane nuestras enfermedades nos gana la desesperación al no tener una respuesta inmediata? Es bueno recordar que el solo hecho de pedir por la sanidad de nuestras enfermedades y otros tantos problemas ya es un gran paso de acercamiento a Jesús. Pidamos más fe este domingo, que nuestro acercamiento a Jesús nos lleve a luchar por la justicia y la paz tan necesitada en este tiempo de incertidumbre. ¡Qué no muera la confianza en Dios! Hay vida en aquello que creemos muerto en nosotros. Pidamos a Dios que lo resucite.

SI TIENEN algun emergencia los lunes llama al padre Juan. Confesiones seran acabo Los Sabados de 3:30pm a 4:30pm. No habran confessions Los Domingos.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel offers a rare framework -- a story in a story. Most of the healing miracles are standalone encounters. One person approaches Jesus, demonstrates faith, and is healed. The evangelist tells the next story. This Gospel, however, is different. Jesus is on his way to heal one person, a young girl of twelve, and is interrupted on his journey by "a woman afflicted with hemorrhages." She bravely approaches Jesus in a crowd, despite being ritually unclean from her bleeding, and stretches out to touch his cloak. She is healed! Jesus meets her eye, confirms her faith, and continues on to resurrect the young girl. Reading this passage, it might be easier to identify with one story -- the long-suffering woman or the young, innocent girl -- and to move past the other. But here they sit side by side. The girl is twelve. The woman has been suffering for twelve years. For the Gospel writers, number parallels have deep symbolic meaning. Between the woman and the young girl, we are not one or the other. We are both. None of us had a perfect childhood, perfect families, or a perfect peer group. As we endure pain, disappointment, or unmet expectations, it can feel like a part of our childhood hopes have died. Our coping mechanisms, social adaptations, and hidden secrets can make us the "walking wounded" in some respects. Jesus wants to do more than simply staunch the bleeding. His healing hand makes dead things come alive. He awakens the dreams that are asleep. This process requires prayer, conversations with trusted community and spiritual mentors, and critical looks at difficult areas of our life. However, we can believe the words of our Lord. If we approach Jesus in faith, believing that he wants to heal and save, we, too, will hear his calming words spoken over the hurts of our life. "I say to you, arise!" "Go in peace."

PARISH NEWS / NOTICIAS DE LA PARROQUIA

"Who are you Following?" Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24 / 2 Cor 8:7, 9, 13-15 / Mk 5:21-43

Our Gospel today speaks to the dire need for great faith. It is not uncommon for man to grow complacent in his faith, and this complacency can actually diminish his faith. Imagine you are part of the crowd in today's gospel. How many dozens of people must have touched or bumped into Jesus as He was making His way through the crowd?! Most of those people didn't recognize that they encountered Christ Himself, and they went about their business. But the hemorrhaging woman knew who He was and she reached out in faith, knowing that simply touching His garment would save her life. We would like to think that we live a life of faith such as hers, but how often have we brushed against Jesus...in Mass, or in our neighbor on the street, or in our own hurried prayers...only to walk away unchanged because of our lack of faith? Your baptism calls you into deep relationship with Jesus, and this relationship demands great faith. In our Stewardship, let us not "accidentally" encounter Jesus, but live in a way that we deliberately do so!

July 5th, 2018 Harvest House will be having our summer indoor picnic at Holy Cross in the lower level at noon. Hamburgers and Hot dogs will be provided. Please bring a side dish you would take to a family picnic. Hope to see you there. Please call and leave a message if you are planning on attending so we have plenty of food.

Director of Liturgical Music: The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, the Mother Church of the Diocese of Wichita, is seeking a part-time Director of Liturgical Music due to the pending retirement of the current Director. Trinity Catholic Volleyball Team is hosting a car wash on SATURDAY, JULY 7 from 10 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Trinity. Come and get your car cleaned and support the team!

Holy Cross Ministry of Consolation will meet on July 8, 2018 after 11:00 Mass in the lower level. We will enjoy a pot luck lunch, followed by a presentation and sharing. The purpose of this group is to help people who are grieving the loss of a loved one. The group provides support, caring, and sharing in the journey through grief. Grief is not like an illness that you recover from, but an ongoing process of sadness, resolving issues and feelings, and hopefully at some point finding peace. Please join us to share in a safe, confidential place with others who understand. Contact-Diane McCarville 620-662-3757
