15th Sunday
IN ORDINARY TIME

✝

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

- Mk 6:7, 13

“¿A Quien Estas Siguiendo?”

El servicio, es una parte integral de ser un buen practicante del Stewardship. Algunas personas evitan servir a los demás, porque se sienten que no están suficientemente preparadas o que son incapaces. Solo lean las lecturas de hoy para que se den cuenta de que Dios no requiere nada más que un Corazón dispuesto. En la primera lectura vemos al profeta Amos, un pastor llamado al servicio del Señor. En el Evangelio, encontramos a los discípulos, que fueron mandados de dos en dos para llevar la Buena Nueva a todos los rincones de la Tierra. Para ser buen practicante del Stewardship, no se requiere tener un título universitario, o cartas de recomendación; al contrario, se requiere tener ojos para buscar las oportunidades de hacer la voluntad de Dios y se requieren manos dispuestas a trabajar. Amos fue llamado para una vida simple como pastor. Mateo era un odiado colector de impuestos. Pedro era un pescador. Dios les llama a todos para servirle; Dios TE llama. ¿Acaso responderás?

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO - ALENTAR ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA (Gospel Meditation)

15° Domingo del tiempo ordinario

El llamado es esencial, la misión es urgente. Incluso debemos ir ligeros de carga, lo más livianos posible. El mismo Jesús da una lista de las cosas necesarias. "Les ordenó que no llevaran nada para el camino, fuera de un bastón ni pan, ni morral, ni dinero; que llevaran calzado corriente y un solo manto". (Mc. 6:8-9). ¡Qué barbaridad, diríamos ahora, por tan pocas cosas! La sociedad de hoy obliga, sobre todo a los jóvenes, a obtener cosas innecesarias para cualquier viaje. Cargan tanto, que hasta se lastiman el cuerpo, llegan al mal humor y, al final, descubren que no necesitaban tanto. Para ser feliz se necesita poco y se requiere abrir el corazón a las necesidades de los demás. Si cargamos poco podemos admirar lo que existe alrededor, ayudar a los necesitados, descansar y realizar la misión que Jesús nos ha encomendado. Las personas lo experimentan cuando reciben una llamada por telefono, si es urgente responden de inmediato. Escuchan y actúan. De igual manera, los discípulos que Jesús envió actuaron como si hubieran recibido una llamada urgente. ¿Cómo respondes al llamado urgente de Jesús de ayudar al necesitado? ¿Te haces el que no escucha y sigues sin actuar? El Evangelio es de gran ayuda para dos cosas. Primero, para escuchar que Jesús nos envía a cumplir una misión. Segundo, para que nos demos cuenta de que es urgente. Tan urgente es, que no necesitamos mucho para ir. Basta con tener un buen espíritu, y donde no reciban al enviado, hay que sacudirse el polvo de los zapatos y seguir adelante. ¡Así de sencillo es el Evangelio!

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"He summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two." This Sunday we read the first sending of the Apostles to preach, teach, and heal. For many of us, it can be easy to think we "just don't have enough" to be disciples and evangelists ourselves. We don't have enough education and training. We don't have enough experience talking to people about Jesus. We don't pray enough. We don't have enough faith. If you look at the Apostles in today's Gospel reading, they didn't have much either. "No food, no sack, no money in their belts." They didn't plan out their itinerary or book their lodging in advance. From what we know of the Apostles, they were not the religiously trained and educated ones. They were fisherman, tax collectors, and political activists. But what does being a fisherman require? Someone like Peter needed a strong work ethic to rise at strange hours. He needed patient calm to wait for the catch. Once ashore, he needed a savvy mind to fetch a good price for his labors. As Peter became a fisher of men, he would need diligence to persevere through the hard journeys, long days, and persecution that awaited him. He would need patient calm with those who disagreed with him. As the leader of the Apostles, he would need a savvy mind to navigate challenges facing the early Church. From one perspective, Peter has nothing to offer the mission of Jesus. Thinking more creatively, one can see that -- joined with faith and love -- perhaps Peter had everything he needed. Jesus sends you as well. As you take stock of your own talents, consider how they might be offered as a gift to others. Maybe you already have more than enough.

PARISH NEWS / NOTICIAS DE LA PARROQUIA

"Who are You Following?"

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Am 7:12-15 / Eph 1:3-14 / Mk 6:7-13

Service is an integral part of being a good steward. Some people shy away from serving others because they feel under-equipped or, in some way, incapable. You only have to look at today's readings to see that God does not require anything more than a willing heart. In the first reading we see the prophet Amos, a shepherd, called into the service of the Lord. In the Gospel we find the disciples, sent two by two, to spread the Good News to all the corners of the Earth. To be a good steward does not require college degrees or letters of recommendation. Rather, it requires eyes that seek opportunities to do God's will and hands that are willing to do the work. Amos was called out of the simple life of a shepherd. Matthew was a despised tax collector. Peter was a fisherman. God is calling everyone into service. God is calling YOU. Will you respond?

Director of Liturgical Music: The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, the Mother Church of the Diocese of Wichita, is seeking a part-time Director of Liturgical Music due to the pending retirement of the current Director. For information regarding requirements, please check the job posting at <http://catholicdioceseofwichita.org>, Ministries & Offices, Human Resources
