“Plenamente Vivos Discípulos Misioneros” 27 avo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Debido a que las lecturas de hoy se enfocan en el matrimonio, tomemos un momento para considerar la unión sacramental como una forma de stewardship. En la primera lectura, vemos como Dios tomó la ofrenda que le hizo Adán de sí mismo (su Costilla) y la utilizó para crear el regalo más perfecto, una compañera para él. Dios ama a Adán y le da el regalo de la vida; en respuesta, Adán usa esa vida para ayudar el plan de Dios. Dios entonces usa el regalo de Adán para bendecirlo aún más, creándole una compañera. Este ciclo de stewardship de reconocer y recibir los regalos de Dios y después usarlos para seguir con su plan, son evidencia clara. En el matrimonio, vivimos practicando el Stewardship entregándonos y recibiéndonos uno al otro como un regalo y viviendo nuestro matrimonio dentro de una relación íntima con Dios y cumpliendo Su plan. Esta es la razón por la que Jesús insiste que “lo que Dios ha unido, no lo separará el hombre.” Como discípulos en la vocación del matrimonio, es esencial que recibamos a nuestros conyugues como regalos provenientes de Dios. Que respondamos en gratitud y usemos nuestros matrimonios para glorificar al Señor.

27o Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Ante el matrimonio, lo que Dios une es al amor, de dos personas, antes que el acta de matrimonio. El amor no es un sentimiento, sino una decisión que toman ambos conyugues y que ambos toman votos de que el amor permanezca hasta que la muerte los separe. Si todos entendieran este concepto, no existiría tanto divorcio, tanto maltrato ni tanta separación de familias. El Evangelio lo pone así: “Por eso dejará el hombre a su padre y a su madre para unirse con su esposa, y serán los dos una sola carne” (Marcos 10:6-8). Es decir, lo que Dios une no lo puede separar el hombre. La soledad no es buena, eso lo sabemos todos, pero, a la vez la libertad y el respeto entre los cónyugues es esencial para una familia sana. Tener una relación saludable no significa que no haya momentos de desacuerdo. Entre una pareja que lleva años de casados, se nota que hay una lucha de mantener la fidelidad. Con su historia de alegría y sufrimiento el corazón se hace más fuerte ante las dificultades y su comunicación más abierta y sincera. En tal apertura, Dios está presente en sus vidas. La oración de este día nos invita a abrir el corazón al amor de Dios para que nos sane de la soledad y del egoísmo. “Dios todopoderoso y eterno, que con amor generoso desbordas los méritos y deseos de los que te suplican, derrama sobre nosotros tu misericordia, para que libres nuestra conciencia de toda inquietud y nos concedas aun aquello que no nos atrevemos a pedir.” Hoy en día, ¿qué hacen las parejas para mejorar sus matrimonios? ¿Cómo pueden ser más fieles y amorosos con sus hijos?

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it." This verse is part of a beautiful reflection on childlike faith. We're reminded of the innocence of children, how eager they are to experience life and how quick they are to trust. Rarely do we hear it with the story that immediately proceeds it. The Pharisees question Jesus on the lawfulness of divorce! Hardly the sort of thorny moral conversation one typically has in front of children. Yet here we are. Jesus' response goes further back than the Mosaic law. "From the beginning, God made them male and female ... the two shall become one flesh ... what God has joined together, no human being must separate." Jesus cites a particular set of passages from Genesis 1 and 2, before the Fall in Genesis 3. Adam and Eve possessed original innocence. How eager they were to encounter one another and to explore the garden! How immediate their initial trust in God. We no longer live in Eden. As we age in our fallen world, our childlike trust is wounded and betrayed. We become hardened to the beauties of life. We're quick to find a way around difficult moments. In brief, things become complicated as we lose our innocence. The teachings of Christ and the Church on sexuality become more challenging or more objectionable. Jesus recognizes this in today's Gospel. His invitation is not to compromise with our broken reality. It is a return to beauty, to the fullness of life as it was meant to be. We can affirm our trust in God. We can view life with gratitude. We can experience healing of our lost innocence. This is possible today -- now! -- by grace. Indeed, "the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

"Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples." Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time Gn 2:18-24 / Heb 2:9-11 / Mk 10:2-16

Because today's readings center on marriage, let's take a moment to consider that sacramental union as a form of stewardship. In the first reading, we see that God took Adam's offering of self (his rib) and used it to create a most perfect gift -- a partner for him. God loves Adam and gives him the gift of life; in response Adam uses that life and cooperates with God's plan. God then uses Adam's gift to bless him even more by creating for him a mate. The stewardship cycle of recognizing and receiving God's gifts and then using them to further his plan is quite evident here. In marriage, we live as stewards by giving ourselves to one another, by receiving one another as a gift, and by intimately living our marriage in union with God and His will. This is why Jesus insists that "what God has joined together, no human being must separate." As disciples in the vocation of marriage, it is essential that we receive our spouses as gifts from God. Let us respond in gratitude and use our marriages to glorify God.

"Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples" Stewardship Renewal Time

Stewardship is a grateful response Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.

Over the next few weeks, our parish family will again be invited to reflect on how we can live our lives as Christian stewards and to renew the annual written pledge of our gifts to God through our parish. Please prayerfully consider how you might recommit yourself to being a good steward of all the gifts God has entrusted to you and your family.
