PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

"He calls them to lead your holy people in love, nourish them by Your word and strengthen them through the sacraments. Father. They are to give their lives in your service and for the salvation of your people as they strive to grow in the likeness of Christ and honor you by their courageous witness of faith and love."

--Preface to the Liturgy of the Chrism Mass

With our sincere thanks for your priestly ministry.

Fr. Juan Garza

Fr. Todd Shepherd

Thank you for living your Vocation and for all you do for
Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish and the Hutchinson Catholic Community!

May Christ, in whose place you stand as priest, give you continuing grace to teach, guide and sanctify His people

“Plenamente Vivos Como Discipulos Misioneros””

30 avo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Una vida vivida plenamente para Jesucristo es un gran reto. Significa decirle “no” constantemente a las distracciones del mundo, inclusive a aquellas que parezcan ser de los mas inofensivas. Por esta razón, mucha gente decide alejarse del discipulado. Nosotros vemos esto en el Evangelio de hoy; en Juan 6,66-67, escuchamos como “muchos de sus discipulos regresaron a su previa forma de vida y ya no lo acompañaron.” Por esto, Jesus le pregunto a los Doce si ellos también querían irse; Entonces, allí esta la lección: el discipulado es una decisión libre. Adoramos a un Dios quien ama libremente y que quiere que nosotros lo hagamos igual... libremente. Nuestro Stewardship es un regalo personal y no debe ser ofrecido por obligación. El dar obligatoriamente no viene del gozo, al contrario, este crea resentimiento. En unas cuantas semanas, empezaremos el proceso de renovación del Stewardship. Esta semana, nos da la oportunidad de pensar y orar acerca de encontrar maneras en las que podamos dar de regreso a Dios libremente y como compartir el gozo que viene de Servirlo y servir a Su gente.

30o Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El Evangelio de hoy está lleno de acción por parte del ciego Bartimeo. Les invito a ver paso a paso lo que sucede en la escena. El está a la orilla del camino, escucha movimiento y se entera que es Jesús de Nazaret el que pasaba. Enseguida, comenzó a gritar. “¡Jesús, Hijo de David, ten compasión de mí!” (Marcos 10:47). Para el ciego, sólo Jesús podía salvarlo de su ceguera. Fue persistente, aunque le decían que se callara, gritaba aún con más fuerza. Él sabía exactamente lo que quería; no tenía ninguna duda. Él deseaba ardientemente encontrarse con Jesús. Estaba seguro que Jesús se compadecería de su situación. ¿En su vida ha experimentado alguna vez esa seguridad en Jesús?

Cuando Jesús se detiene y le llama, el tira su manto, y de un salto. Se pone frente a Jesús. Listo para la misión, seguro de sí mismo, atiende a la pregunta: “¿Qué quieres que haga por ti?” Maestro quiero ver. Su fe lo salvo. “Puedes irte, tu fe te ha salvado.” Qué hermoso momento encontrar a Jesús, verlo, sentir su bondad y misericordia. Bartimeo ya no estaba solo en el camino, se unió a Jesús en una relación íntima e inquebrantable. Fe en acción es el ejemplo de este ciego. ¿Quiénes son los Bartimeos de nuestro tiempo? ¿Quiénes están en el camino dando gritos? Inmigrantes que sufren, jóvenes que claman por justicia, violencia en las familias y en la sociedad. ¡Señor, ayúdanos a ver más allá de nuestra miopía!

A Prayer for Priests “The priesthood is the love of the heart of Jesus.” - St. Jean Vianney

Jesus Christ, Great High Priest,

You are able to sympathize with our human weakness
Strengthen your priests for the work of ministry.
You healed, proclaimed, and taught. Renew your priests in their concern for the poor, zeal for the Gospel, and personal witness to virtue.
You instituted the sacraments as signs of heavenly grace.
Make holy your priests for this sacred service.
You bore our sufferings and sins upon yourself.
May your priests remain close to the broken-hearted.
Jesus Christ, Great High Priest, bring your priests ever closer to your Sacred Heart.
Amen.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Son of David, have pity on me!” Has the cry of Bartimaeus ever escaped your lips? Today’s Gospel tells the story of a blind man with a difficult lot in life. He made a living by begging coins off passing travelers. When word reaches him that Jesus will be passing by, this is when he begins to shout for mercy. Jesus hears Bartimaeus’ cry and beckons him forward.

“What do you want me to do for you?” Last week, Jesus asked a similar question to James and John. Their response was a clutch for fame. Bartimaeus’ response is much humbler. “Lord, I want to see.” How strange this interaction must have seemed to the onlookers. The man is blind! Of course he wants to see! But Jesus is always teaching us. By asking us what we want, Jesus reveals the dispositions of our hearts. God already knows them, but do we? By asking James and John to name their ambition, their selfishness is exposed to them and to the other disciples. By asking Bartimaeus to name his longing, his faith is exposed to the entire crowd. Jesus invites participation in our own redemption. He doesn’t save us without us! Take some time in silent prayer today. Place yourself in this story of Bartimaeus. Imagine yourself there on the dusty, crowded roadside. Jesus is calling you! When you stand before him, his focus is on you and you alone. “What do you want me to do for you?” he asks. Search your heart. How would you respond? What part of your heart is Jesus asking you to expose? He has come to heal and to restore. May we, too, be sent! “Go ... your faith has saved you.”

"Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples" Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time Jer 31:7-9/ Heb 5:1-6 / Mk 10:46-52

"Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." This statement from today's gospel might be a wakeup call to each and every one of us. It is nearly time for us to recommit our gifts of time, talent, and treasure for the coming year. How is Jesus calling you to do so? And how will you respond? The blind man in this gospel passage desperately wants to see, and he knows that Jesus can heal him. He has great faith! However, the people around him rebuke him for calling out to Jesus and make him feel unworthy. How often does the world do this to us? We should encourage one another to call out to Jesus - we should all be blessed with the gift of sight that only He can provide! In the coming week, find a moment of silence when you can shut out the noise of the world and listen for Jesus' call. And may you respond with the same enthusiasm as the man in the Gospel: "He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus."

FAITH AND LIGHT, tri-parish meeting meets at 5:00 pm Sunday October 28th in the LL of Holy Cross Catholic Church. Theme is "Saints" plus our annual Chili Dinner, which combines pot-luck chili's into one large pot and sides. A Spiritual presentation will be followed by dinner and a craft. Please call Pat at 665-7824 with any questions. See you there!

Harvest House will be honoring all veterans and spouses of veterans with a noon luncheon. We will meet in the lower level of Holy Cross on Nov. 1st, 2018 at 12:00 noon. This luncheon is to show our appreciation for the sacrifice you and your family has made to give all of us our freedom. Invite your veteran friends. Everyone welcome. Please call 620-259-7305 and leave us the number attending so we are prepared. Thank you again for your service and your family sacrifice. Janet & John Holland.

The daily emotions and challenges can seem too hard to bear. In this afternoon seminar, you will hear what to expect in your grief, how to cope in life without your spouse, why it won't always hurt this much, and how God wants to talk with you in your grief. This seminar includes: Video discussion, Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for All Souls Day, and Dinner. Price: $20.00 To register please call the Spiritual Life Center 316-744-0167

Matthew 19:14 "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." STEWARDSHIP:

This weekend, during all masses, the parish will be doing an informal Stewardship Fair. Examples of the Four Pillars of Stewardship will be represented on four of the wooden beams in church. Everyone is invited and encouraged to get ideas on how they can grow in faith through the call of Stewardship. The fair is in preparation for Stewardship Renewal Weekend when forms are renewed. New this year, is a Stewardship Youth Form specifically inviting our youth to share their own time and talents and join in the many fun and spiritually rewarding ministries Our Lady of Guadalupe offers.
