“Plenamente Vivos Como Discípulos Misioneros”

Segundo Domingo en el Tiempo Ordinario Es 62:1-5/I Cor 12:4-11/Jn 2:1-11

La Navidad fue hace casi un mes. Tómese un momento para reflexionar sobre los dones que puede haber recibido... ¿Dónde están ahora sin duda, algunos de esos dones se han convertido en posesiones preciadas que se utilizan diariamente. Algunos de ellos pueden haber sido puestos fuera para su uso posterior. Algunos de ellos pueden haber sido devueltos a la tienda, o incluso re-dotados. Seamos honestos, la gente de hoy no siempre recibe regalos con una mente abierta. Queremos lo que queremos y nos deshacemos de lo que no queremos. ¿Cómo se lleva este comportamiento a nuestra aceptación de los dones que hemos recibido del Espíritu Santo? La lectura de hoy de 1 Corintios nos dice que a cada uno se le ha dado un don único que no elegimos. Más bien, fue elegido específicamente para nosotros. ¿Qué hemos hecho con ese regalo? ¿Es apreciado y amado cada día? ¿Está completamente vivo? O lo ocultamos para “Later”? Pablo nos dice que debemos usar ese don para permitir que el Espíritu Santo trabaje a través de nosotros--pero primero, tenemos que aceptar el don y llegar a conocerlo. ¡Esto viene a través de la oración y la práctica! Pídele al Espíritu Santo que te guíe y permíteme que te haga un poco incómodo mientras te anima a usar tu Don en la vida de los demás.

2º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En las celebraciones de las primeras comunidades cristianas incluían en el ciclo de la Epifanía el Bautismo de Jesús y la boda de Caná. La liturgia de hoy se enfoca en la tercera manifestación de Jesús, en la boda de Caná. Es ahí donde Jesús muestra su primer milagro, símbolo de su poder divino, como trabajo de la Palabra encarnada. El Evangelio de este domingo y el próximo proveen distintas escenas de cómo Jesús inaugura su ministerio público. Pero ahora, se nos invita no a fijarnos en la historia del milagro de transformar el agua en vino, sino en la profunda transformación que ocurre en el Evangelio de Juan. La narrativa del Evangelio culmina con las siguientes palabras: "Esto que Jesús hizo en Caná de Galilea fue la primera de sus señales milagrosas. Así mostró su gloria y sus discípulos creyeron en él". Este es el verdadero milagro para nosotros ahora. Creer en Jesús aunque muchas veces realmente no entendamos quién es él. Tres comienzos ocurrieron en este milagro. La pareja de novios que iniciaba su vida, el principio de muchas más manifestaciones de Jesús en su ministerio público y el comienzo de sus discípulos de creer en él. Después de escuchar este Evangelio, ¿cuál será el comienzo nuevo que haremos en nuestra vida? Tal y como Juan lo dice: "En una boda, el que tiene a la novia es el novio; en cambio, el amigo del novio, que lo acompaña y lo oye hablar, se alegra mucho de oír su voz" (3, 29). ¡Alegrémonos de escuchar la voz de Jesús en este domingo!

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Occasionally we hear someone speak about experiencing a miracle. Usually it involves rescue from some accident or health crisis. "It was a miracle that car didn't hit me, the way they were driving" or "It was a miracle they were able to save her leg, the way that it was smashed." We even talk about "miracle" drugs, a reference to the amazing properties of life-saving antibiotics, antivirals, and certain other compounds. Miracles have a character of the unexplained to them. While scientists can describe in great detail the action of "miracle" drugs, to the rest of us they seem just amazing. Doctors can illuminate the process by which someone is healed through surgery and therapy, but again, it seems almost unbelievable when we see the results. Engineers can detail why a collision never happened, but to those who escape harm, it seems like a miracle indeed! The miracle at the wedding feast at Cana in Galilee is the third aspect of what comprises the manifestation of Christ known as the Epiphany mystery. (The appearance of the Magi and the baptism at the Jordan are the other two.) In his Gospel, John describes the action by Jesus at Cana as a "sign" that reveals his glory. It is the revelation of his glory that causes the disciples to believe in him. Jesus is made manifest, and so people come to believe. It is what happened to the Magi; it is what happened to the crowds gathered at the Jordan; it is what happens to the disciples who are with him at the wedding feast. The wonder of God's glory is not reserved to spectacular miracles that take place only at rare intervals. It is a wonder that a drug can cure someone, or that a surgeon can work so skillfully, or that for whatever reason, accidents are avoided. Seeing the manifestation of God's action each day is the sign of one who believes that the Word is made flesh and dwells among us.

YOU DON'T NEED TO LIKE WINE!

I'm not a wine drinker, so why do I want to invest my time in the CHOICE WINE program? The Choice Wine program recalls the first public miracle that Jesus performed at the Wedding Feast of Cana when He changed water to wine for a worried bride and groom when the wine ran short. The best wine was saved until last. Similarly, as you strive to live your sacrament and enrich your marital relationship you will come to see that the best has been saved for last - the eternal Wedding Feast of the Lamb.

Registration forms are now available on the Holy Cross Parish website and will continue to be available until the first session begins on February 10th. Registration is limited to 25 couples and there is a $10 registration fee to cover the cost of materials for the nine-session program which will start run from 3 - 5 p.m. in the lower level of the Church. Come join us! Questions - call Mike (727-6094) or Neita (727-7745) Christopherson.

"Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples" Second Sunday in Ordinary Time Is 62:1-5 / I Cor 12:4-11 / Jn 2:1-11

Christmas was nearly a month ago. Take a moment to reflect on the gifts you may have received...where are they now? Undoubtedly, some of those gifts have become prized possessions that get used daily. Some of them may have been put away for later use. Some of them may have been returned to the store, or even re-gifted. Let's be honest, people today don't always receive gifts with an open mind. We want what we want and we get rid of what we don't want. How does this behavior carry over to our acceptance of the gifts we have received from the Holy Spirit? Today's reading from 1 Corinthians tells us that we have each been given a unique gift that we did not choose. Rather, it was chosen specifically for us. What have we done with THAT gift? Is it prized and loved each day? Is it fully alive? Or did we hide it away for "later"? Paul tells us we should use that gift to allow the Holy Spirit to work through us -- but first, we have to accept the gift and get to know it. This comes through prayer and practice! Ask the Holy Spirit for guidance and allow Him to make you a little uncomfortable as He encourages you to use your gift in the lives of others!

Christ Renews His Parish, or CRHP, is a weekend retreat designed to help renew our faith by bringing members of our community together in Christ. It is a respite from your busy schedule of personal, business, and family obligations that provides an opportunity for personal spiritual renewal. The weekend will also provide a unique opportunity to grow in your faith with fellow parishioners, as others share their spiritual journeys in an informal and relaxed environment of reflection, fellowship, and fun.

Who should attend?

Anyone 21 and older is welcome to attend a Christ Renews His Parish weekend. You do not need to be Catholic to attend. Separate weekends are offered for men and women.

* Women's retreat: 8am Saturday - 4:00 Sun., Mar. 30-31st

What should I expect?

The emphasis of the weekend is on small group participation and personal renewal. Everyone is welcome to share as much or as little as they would like. Accommodations are basic, but comfortable, with Our Lady of Guadalupe serving as your "home" for the weekend. There is no cost for the weekend and all meals are provided.
