"PLENAMENTE VIVOS COMO DISCÍPULOS MISIONEROS" SEGUNDO DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

Hoy escuchamos de la Transfiguración. En la lectura del Evangelio, la apariencia de Jesus cambia a algo cegador y divino; el cual, es un poco sobresaltante para Pedro, Andres y Juan. Agregandole a eso la apariencia de Moises y Elias y la voz retumbante de Dios desde el cielo. Entonces no es difícil entender por que Pedro pudo haberse quedado perplejo. El énfasis de esta lectura parase enfocarse mas en la majestuosidad y divinidad de Jesus; pero, hay otra historia de transimacion que se cuenta, la de Pedro como discípulo. Pedro era un seguidor devoto de Jesus, pero él era un poco lento para aprender y eso lo hacia mas parecido al resto de nosotros. Tuvo que pasar un expectaculo de esa magnitud para que él entendiera quien y que era en verdad el Mesias. Consideren su propio progreso como discípulos; tal vez tu tambien eres un seguidor devoto de Jesucristo. ¿Cómo es que al igual que Pedro, tu tambien puedes ser transformado durante estos cuarenta días de ayuno? Ora para que Dios se te revele de una manera única y deje que tu Lo entiendas de una manera mas profunda y compartas esa fe con los demas.

LENT SCHEDULE

We will have mass on Fridays during Lent at 5pm and Stations of the Cross will start at 5:30pm. Don't forget to walk over to Madonna Hall afterwards to enjoy a delicious Lenten dinner.

"FULLY ALIVE AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES"

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

GEN 15:5-12, 17-18 / PHIL 3:20-4:1 / LK 9:28B-36

Today we hear about the Transfiguration. In this gospel passage, Jesus' appearance changes into something blinding and divine which is somewhat overwhelming for Peter, James, and John. Add to that the appearance of Moses and Elijah and the booming voice of God from heaven, and it isn't difficult to understand why Peter might have been baffled. The emphasis in this reading seems to be on the majesty and divinity of Jesus, but there is another story of transformation being told -- that of Peter, the disciple. Peter was a devoted follower of Jesus, but he was a bit of a slow learner, and that makes him very much like many of us. It took a major spectacle for him to understand who and what the Messiah really was! Consider your own progress as a disciple. Perhaps you, too, are a devoted follower of Jesus Christ. How then might you, like Peter, be transformed during this 40 day fast? Pray that God will reveal Himself in a unique way that allows you to more deeply understand Him and share your faith with others!
