"Plenamente Vivos Como Discípulos Misioneros" Sexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Hoy, nuestro evangelio nos detiene para pensar en la palabra "bendecido". A nosotros se nos ha dado cuatro comentarios con las palabras "bendecidos son" balanceados con cuatro comentarios con las palabras "ay de ustedes". Hablando generalmente, la mayoría de nosotros preferimos ser "bendecidos" en lugar de ser tener "lastima" por nosotros; pero como siempre, Jesús quiere retar nuestras ideas generales. Jesús dice, bendecidos los que son pobres, hambrientos, los que están sufriendo y los que son odiados. Él dice, "ay de ti" a los que son ricos, llenos, a los que rien y a los que son amados por todos. Esto es exactamente lo opuesto a lo que pensaríamos, pero ¿Por qué tendría El que decir esto? La respuesta es obvia: ay de ti quien está ligado a este mundo, porque ya has recibido tu felicidad. En el discipulado, Jesús nos está llamando a dejar las comodidades de este mundo y bendecidos sean aquellos quienes responden. Un buen practicante del Stewardship, agradecidamente le responde a Jesús poniendo sus necesidades mundanas a un lado y usa sus regalos (bendiciones) para cubrir las necesidades de los demás. También retándonos a nosotros mismos, podemos alcanzar un propósito más alto que los placeres de esta vida. Claramente Dios nos ha bendecido abundantemente y por eso debemos de ser agradecidos y estar plenamente vivos en Cristo.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

When I was a child, I often thought of the Church as something mystical and supernatural. I wasn't wrong in my understanding of the Body of Christ, for surely the Church has these characteristics. However, even though we speak about the foundation of all we are as Church being the "mystery of Christ," Jesus became a man so that supernatural element could break into the natural world in a profound way. What we once could not see, we now see. What we saw as a God in a distant place now dwelt among us. It is one of the aspects of Catholicism that I have grown to appreciate the most as I have matured: for a Catholic, the supernatural is natural. The communion of saints is heavenly and earthly at the same time.

The Beatitudes instruct us about this reality. Pope Francis reminds us that holiness is "not about swooning in mystic rapture." Holiness is about living in the real world and doing extraordinary things with our ordinary lives. Our stewardship way of life consists of actions in the natural world that have extraordinary repercussions.

Do not ever take your simple actions of generosity and love for granted. As disciples called to a life of stewardship, we participate in something more profound than what we can see. We are blessed to be called to follow Jesus, and we bring blessing to all those with whom we choose to share ourselves.

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

What an audience Jesus has in today's Gospel! "A great crowd of his disciples and a large number of people from all over Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon." Disciples, pagans, and devout Jews gathered together to hear Jesus speak in the Sermon on the Mount. All of these people had something in common. God was someone to be bargained with, and if God liked you, you were rewarded with good fortune. This Sunday, Jesus tells us a different story. "Woe to you who are rich? who are filled now? who laugh? when all speak well of you. Blessed are you who are poor? you who are now hungry? when people hate you and when they exclude you and insult you." Jesus completely flips the script on what it means to be blessed by God. What he proclaims as "woe" are states of life we often strive for, and "blessed" are the states we work hard to avoid!

Jesus is concerned with the kingdom of God and the world to come, not the typical structures of power and privilege. The word "now" appears often in these statements. Why? If you are well "now," that's beside the point. To be rich in this life has no direct bearing on your immortal soul. If you're struggling "now," that's not an indication that God has forgotten you or that - in light of eternity - you're worse off than someone else. In fact, it could be an indicator that you're enduring something that will bring you to a place of greater, eternal joy in the future.

This Sunday, consider your priorities. Who do we reject as not blessed, and thereby inflict woe upon ourselves? When we encounter difficult situations in our own lives, do we see them as opportunities to remember God and lean on His mercy and grace?

"Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples" Sixth Sunday in Ordinary time

Jer 17: 5-8 / I Cor 15:12, 16-20 / Lk 6:17, 20-26

Our gospel today causes us to pause and consider the word "blessed." We are given four "blessed are you" statements balanced by four "woe to you" statements. Generally speaking, most of us would prefer to be "blessed" rather than in a state of "woe," but as usual, Jesus wants to challenge our general ideas. Jesus says blessed are those who are poor, hungry, weeping, and hated by others; He says woe to you who are rich, full, laughing, and loved by all. This is the exact opposite of what we might think -- why would He say that? The answer seems fairly obvious: woe to you who are attached to this world, for you have already received your happiness. In discipleship, Jesus is calling us out of the comforts of this world, and blessed are they who respond! A good steward gratefully responds to Jesus, putting our worldly needs aside and using our gifts, our blessings, to meet the needs of others. Also challenging ourselves to reach for a higher purpose than the pleasures of this life. Clearly God has blessed us abundantly, and for that we should be grateful and fully alive in Christ.
