4th Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury.
But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away. - Lk 4:28, 30

Al oír esto, todos los que estaban en la sinagoga se llenaron de ira.
Pero él, pasando por en medio de ellos, se alejó de allí. - Lc 4, 28. 30

“Plenamente Vivos Discípulos Misioneros” Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El Evangelio de hoy nos ofrece una lección de hospitalidad, que es el primer pilar del Stewardship. En esta lectura, Jesús al principio es “recibido” por Su propia gente en Su propia ciudad cálidamente; pero después, es rechazado con violencia. La gente que conocía muy bien a Jesús, no podía aceptar que Él y Sus palabras venían de Dios. Entonces, nos hacemos esta pregunta, ¿Recibo a Jesús con hospitalidad, o también soy culpable de tener expectativas de Él? ¿acaso la imagen que tengo de Él es el de un egocéntrico y un egoísta? ¿Alguna vez lo he rechazado cuando no he recibido la respuesta a lo que busco? Recuerden, nuestro discipulado nos llama a actuar con hospitalidad hacia los demás; mientras reflejamos acerca de nuestra propia aceptación por Jesús, también podemos reflexionar sobre nuestra aceptación con los demás, pero siempre pensando en este pasaje “lo que sea que haga hasta por el más pequeño de mis hermanos y hermanas, tú también lo estás haciendo por mí.” ¿podemos ver al Señor “plenamente vivo” en cada uno de ellos?

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel is one of tension and contradiction. We enter the scene at the local synagogue. It is near the beginning of Jesus' earthly ministry, and he has returned home to Nazareth for a short while. There, in the midst of the men who watched him grow up and who played with him as a boy in the dusty streets, Jesus proclaims that he is the fulfillment of the Messianic prophecies of Isaiah. The response is understandably mixed. "All spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, 'Isn't this the son of Joseph?'"

Jesus reminds them - none too gently - of the Israelites' rejection of the prophets throughout history. Not only did the people ignore Elijah and Elisha, but they worked miracles among the pagans instead. Then comes the rage. "They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong." No one likes to be reminded of their own faults. In the deeply religious Jewish society, nobody wanted to be the unfaithful one. Jesus exposes the sins of the community, and it drives them not to conversion, but to rage. We can consider our own time. How often, when someone is contracted, do they quickly resort to anger, name-calling, and undermining the reputation of the other? How quickly we want to destroy! This Sunday, we ought to consider our own lives. Do we listen to the prophetic voices around us, even when they threaten to upturn our expectations? If we hear something difficult, something that reminds us of our own sin, do we accept the opportunity to prayerfully ponder? If we allow ourselves to be open to the prophetic voices in our own lives, we'll notice that God speaks through the unexpected, if we have ears to hear it.

"Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples"

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary time

Jer 1:4-5, 17-19 / 1 Cor 12:31-13:13 / Lk 4:21-30

Today's gospel offers us an important lesson in hospitality, the first pillar of Stewardship. In this passage, Jesus is "received" by His own people in His own town at first warmly, but then rejected with violence. The people were so familiar with Jesus, they could not accept that He and His words from God. We are left asking ourselves this question: do I receive Jesus hospitably, or am I also guilty of placing expectations on Him? Is my reception of Him self-centered and self-serving? Have I ever rejected Him when I did not get the response I was seeking? And remember -- our discipleship also calls us to act with hospitality toward one another. As we reflect on our acceptance of Jesus, we can also reflect on our acceptance of one another, keeping in mind that "whatever you do for the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." Do we see the Lord "fully alive" in them?
